

Program and learning outcomes

In an institution the course outcome for all programs defined as per the norms of Punjabi University, Patiala. The college is affiliated with Punjabi University, Patiala. The syllabus for all courses is displayed on the university website and students are expected to follow the same. The faculty of the college makes the students aware for course outcomes such expected minimum pass percentage, submission of regular assignments, practical for their specific subjects. Every student taking up a subject with practical component is expected to attend all practical and submit the practical file, projects, models or surveys etc. as course out comes expected from them. Each subject has an assignments that the students must fulfill and submit on the time as this is used for preparing internal assessment in theory and practical. The students are expected to pass the mid-semester examinations with minimum pass percentage as per the university norms.